Source: Compiled based on reports from the Central Federation of Societies of Commerce and Industry, Japan.

- Notes:
1. Only societies of commerce and industry that reported on damage by May 14, 2011, are included.
  2. It should be noted that societies of commerce and industry as a rule cover the same areas as towns and villages.
  3. Hardly any responses were obtainable from coastal areas of Fukushima Prefecture due to the impact of the nuclear power plant accident.

Note: The original data of this figure is provided by the Central Federation of Societies of Commerce and Industry, Japan.
